

Molecular States – How To Use this Unit

Activity 1 – Molecular States

Open the activity by clicking the Start Activity link. This simple animation allows students to move a magnifying glass over the three states of water (solid, liquid, and gas) so that they can “see” how the molecules move in each state. This simple tool easily allows students to visualize that all things are made up of moving molecules.